

Balloons

WHALEY BRIDGE student Kathryn Pollard will be bringing extra colour to the Water Weekend, selling balloons for a race to raise money for an international children's charity.

Kathryn, 20, who hopes to become a vet, is studying animal science at Nottingham. She is taking part in charity expedition with 250 fellow students who will climb Kilimanjaro in parties during the summer. Kathryn's expedition is in September

Kathryn hopes to raise £2,200 for Childreach International, which works with the poorest communities in Africa. Buying a balloon can help Kathryn towards her target. You can contact her on 0786 75 45 35
