CHANGES AT WHALEY BRIDGE TOWN COUNCIL

In November 2015 Susanne Lomas resigned as a member of Whaley Bridge Town Council, wishing to retire, after giving over six years of service to the Council. She will continue to work actively with COGGS in Furness Vale and the Community Centre Post Office Shop and Café.

Notice of a Casual Vacancy was posted but no candidates came forward and no election was called. The Council co-opted Mrs Louise Cooper as a member of the Town Council.

After 20 years of outstanding service to the Town Council, Stephanie Raybould retired at the end of December. Her replacement is Keith Bradshaw who is an experienced qualified Clerk who holds the Certificate in Local Council Administration and is a member of the Institute of Local Council Management. The Town Council thanks Stephanie for her devoted service and wishes her a long and happy retirement.

The Queen's 90th Birthday Celebrations

BONFIRE BEACON

Many communities will be celebrating the Queen's 90th birthday by the lighting of beacons across the country on 21st April 2016. The beacons can be "Bonfire Beacons" as opposed to Gas Fuelled Beacons" and The Town Council would like to hear from any individual or group who would be interested in helping to organise this event..

CLEAN FOR THEQUEEN

In addition to the lighting of Beacons, High Peak Borough Council will be liaising with the Town Council over the next few months coordinating efforts to raise awareness of litter issues within our community as part of the "Clean for the Queen" campaign. It is proposed that a monumental clean up should take place between Friday 4th and Sunday 6th March. Any one interested in taking part please contact the
